The Springvale Public Library Board of Trustees announces that Karen McCarthy Eger will be leaving her position as the Springvale Public Library Director and moving on to the next phase of her library career as the Library Director in her hometown of South Berwick. The Trustees are saddened by her departure and wish her well in all of her future endeavors. Through her eleven years at the Library, eight of them as Library Director, Karen's dedication and service to the Springvale Public Library has been sincerely appreciated. Dawn Brown has graciously stepped up as acting Director while the Board of Trustees go through an evaluation and search process to find a new Library Director. During this time, Springvale Public Library will continue to offer all services and will remain the great library that you have come to expect. Karen's last day at the Library will be January 26, 2012. Everyone is invited to say farewell to Karen at an informal reception to be held in the Library's front room from 6 pm to 7 pm on Monday, January 23, 2012.
